Company Profile

Our Business

We are a China-based fabless semiconductor company that designs, develops, and markets radio-frequency and mixed-signal semiconductors for a broad range of cellular, broadcast, and connectivity applications. We shipped our first product in 2005, and our diversified product portfolio currently includes power amplifiers, transceivers and front-end modules, FM radio receivers, set-top box tuners, analog mobile television receivers, walkie-talkie transceivers, LNB satellite downconverters and Bluetooth system-on-chip.

Our core competency is the design of highly integrated, high-performance radio-frequency and mixed-signal system-on-chip. We have developed our core competency through a combination of technic... (more)
