Company Profile

ChemoCentryx is a biopharmaceutical company focused exclusively on discovering, developing and commercializing orally-administered therapeutics to treat autoimmune diseases, inflammatory disorders and cancer. Our drug candidates target specific chemokines or chemoattractant receptors, thereby blocking the inflammatory response driven by that particular chemokine while leaving the rest of the immune system unaffected. Our goal is to discover, develop and commercialize therapeutics with distinct advantages over currently marketed therapies in our disease areas of focus, thereby maximizing ... \(more\)
