Company Profile

Celsion Corporation is an oncology drug development company focused on the development of efficient, effective, and targeted therapies for the treatment of cancer. Founded in 1985, the company has developed elegant therapeutic approaches that deliver high concentrations of widely used anti-cancer agents directly to the tumor site, maximizing efficacy while minimizing the side-effects of systemic treatments, with the goal of improving patient outcomes in underserved cancer indications. The foundation for this research is a heat-sensitive liposomal nanoparticle licensed from Duke Universit... \(more\)
