Company Profile

PGT Industries, founded in 1980, is the nation's leading manufacturer and supplier of residential impact-resistant windows and doors.

In the early 1980s, PGT focused its operations on porch enclosure systems. By 1987, PGT was manufacturing its first line of glass windows marketed under the name PGT (Progressive Glass Technology). Later, in 1988, the company added tool and die making and injection molding to its manufacturing capabilities, allowing it to keep pace with the company's tremendous growth while ensuring its high standards of product quality and service.
