Merger Consideration

Now that the acquisition is completed, AMRI registered shareholders will receive a letter of transmittal and related materials from Computershare, the exchange agent for the merger, with detailed written instructions for exchanging shares of AMRI common stock evidenced by stock certificates for the merger consideration. If your shares of common stock are held in street name by your broker, bank, trust or other nominee, you may receive instructions from your broker, bank, trust or other nominee as to what action, if any, you need to take to effect the surrender of your street name shares in exchange for the merger consideration.
